LOCAL NEWS.

Attend the County Fair.

Have you heard the wonderful music at the Nogales Pool Hall?

Tom Fraiser, the mine contractor, was here Wednesday from camp.

Fred Alford, from Noria, was a business visitor in town the forepart of the week.

C. H. Holler writes from Los Angeles that he and the folks are having a fine time.

Col. Allen T. Bird, editor of the Oasis, has returned from a visit to the Texas oil fields.

Mr. F. E. Ross, State Bank Examiner, has been in the city this week on official business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Whitney, were arrivals in Nogales last Monday from San Xavier, Son.

The dry goods stores of Nogales closed September 16th in honor of Mexico's Independence Day.

William Knox, a prominent Phoenix business man, was in Nogales this week a couple of days.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams, of Hermosillo, having terminated their visit in California, returned last Wednesday.

W. E. Fuller, president of the San Pedro Oil Co., of which H. D. Tomlin is agent, has returned to Tucson.

Ramon Elias, president of the Sopori Land & Cattle Company, was a business visitor in Nogales this week.

Mrs. E. A. Larrieu and the children have arrived from Huachuca to join Mr. Larrieu of the Santa Cruz Meat Market.

Miss Nash, one of The First National Bank's efficient stenographers, has gone to California where she will visit relatives and friends.

Miss Marguerite O'Keefe and Messrs. Louis Hudgin, Jr., Bon-sall Noon and Edward Noon, have gone to the University of Arizona.

Jack O'Keefe, son of Mrs. Con O'Keefe of this city, last Tuesday entered the University of Arizona. Jack will graduate next year.

This week Nogales was visited by H. G. Stewart, manager of Armour & Company's Tucson branch. He was accompanied by J. D. Jacks.

Mr. W. P. Capehart, manager of the First State Bank of Patagonia, accompanied by his wife, was a county seat visitor Monday of this week.

A. Langdon, connected with the mercantile department of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, at Empalme, Sonora, is here for a short visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chase and children were visitors in the city the forepart of the week a couple of days, from their ranch in the San Rafael valley.

Governor Thos. E. Campbell and Andy Martin, State Commander of the Arizona branch of the American Legion, will deliver addresses at the County Fair.

J. A. Small, superintendent of the Nogales-Cananea branch of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Naco, was here this week on company business.

Stanley G. Pinkerton, son of W. H. Pinkerton, auditor for Karns Bros., Inc., has entered the University of Arizona. For some time past Stanley has been cashier for Roy & Titcomb, Inc.

Dr. E. C. Houle, surgeon for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, has returned to Empalme, after spending several days in Nogales, where the popular medico has many friends and acquaintances.

Jack Hoy, manager of the old Trench mine in the Harshaw district, was a county seat visitor Tuesday and Wednesday. Jack recently inspected mining property in the Altar district. Says it looked good to him. Jack is backed financially, by Charley Clarke, son of Senator Clarke.

Kent Fryer, of Harshaw, who saw service with Uncle Sam's boys in France, was in Nogales last Monday, on private business.

After a combined business and pleasure visit on the coast, Dr. J. C. Underwood, who for more than a quarter of century has operated mines in Sonora, returned home the forepart of the week.

Ferd M. VanMourick, manager of the local branch of the Sonora News Co., has gone to Los Angeles to join his family who have been there all summer. They will return next week.

Hon. George W. Parker from his San Rafael Valley ranch, was a county seat visitor last Wednesday. Mr. Parker has about recovered from injuries received when a bronco horse, not a mule, kicked him.

Max Cohen, the life insurance man who makes his headquarters in Mexico City, is a business visitor in Nogales. Way back in 1882, Max was one of Nogales' prominent, highly respected citizens.

Last Sunday night the home of Louis Loos, manager of the Nogales Hardware & Furniture Company, was robbed, during the absence of the family. Two pistols and valuable jewelry are missing. No clue.

Julian Johnson, formerly of Sonora, now a resident of Tucson, was a business visitor in Nogales this week a couple of days. Julian is a son of Don Ricardo Johnson, pioneer mining man of Sonora.

Rev. Geo. C. Golden, former rector of St. Andrew's church, is enjoying a visit here with his host of friends and acquaintances. He came from Ft. Whipple, where the government has a sanitarium for soldiers.

Arthur Peck, one of Nogales' best known boys, who saw service overseas with Uncle Sam's artillery, has been appointed to a position on the Nogales police force, under Chief J. J. Lowe. Sergeant Peck will make good.

Amos J. Yaeger, the Alamos, Sonora, mining man, has returned from the south country, where he had been on business connected with his property at Minas Nuevas. From here Mr. Yaeger will go to his home in Los Angeles.

At the regular monthly meeting of the City Council last Monday night, Mayor Fiedler and Clerk F. E. Cole, were authorized to sign a lease with the Southern Pacific for three acres on the sewer farm, north of Nogales, to be used for stock yards.

Mr. Francis Duffy, son of Judge Frank J. Duffy of this city, has returned to the University of Arizona, which he left to go to France with the American army. While in France, Francis attended a college several months. He will graduate with the U. of A. Class of 1920.

Mrs. James B. Gordon, from Empalme, where her husband is stationed as chief train-dispatcher, is visiting in Nogales, a guest of her friend, Mrs. Ada Jones, on Nob Hill. The Gordons are pleasantly remembered by all old residents of Nogales, where they resided many years.

A. J. Milliken, U. S. Immigration inspector in charge at this port, has gone to California for a well earned vacation, the first in over five years. During Mr. Milliken's absence, Captain Chas Beatty, one of the most efficient, accommodating gentlemen on the international border, will be in charge.

Mr. Jesus Saldamando, popular proprietor of the American Drug Store, departed early last Wednesday morning for Los Angeles, where he will enjoy a month's visit with relatives and friends. James B. Mix, chief customs inspector, accompanied Mr. Saldamando. They will make the trip by automobile.

The Arizona Corporation Commission will conduct a hearing in this city on Monday, Sept. 22, upon applications of all taxicab, jitney, transfer, express and trucking businesses, for licenses. Those who will be heard are: Chas. V. Fowler, Allen Smith, Chas. W. Curtis, H. G. Baker, Albert W. Gray, H. G. Lohan, Frank H. Eager, Manuel Miranda, James Hagan, H. P. McPadden, Carlos Soto, Usbaldo Longo, Fred Ott.

W. C. Laughlin, of the W. C. Laughlin Company, owners of great producing mines at San Xavier, Sonora, went south to the mines the forepart of this week. He was accompanied by John Kochler, Ralph Peitotty and Tom Rae, of Tucson, who will be employed by Mr. Laughlin's company.

Mr. D. W. Timm, manager of the company which is installing a rendering plant on the city's sewer farm, has arrived from San Francisco. Mr. Timm says he brought along his over coat, and will spend the winter in Nogales. The factory, which will give employment to a large number of people, will be located at the old pumping plant, which has been leased from the city. Manager Timm is a pleasant gentleman. We wish him success.

Today Messrs. Bracey Curtis, Wirt G. Bowman, J. M. Parades and Leslie C. Hardy, officers of the Arizona-Mexico Oil & Refining Co., will return from the Desdemona oil fields in Texas, where their company owns large valuable holdings, on which two wells will at once be sunk. All the gentlemen from Nogales, who recently visited the company's property, were well pleased, and predict great dividends for those owning stock in the A. M. O. & R. Co.

Callus? "Gets-It" Will Peel It Off!

Nothing on Earth Like Simple "Gets-It" for Corns or Calluses.

A callus, or thickened skin on the sole of the foot, which often makes walking a misery in of the same nature as a corn. "Gets-It"

Use "Gets-It" and Dance, Even with Corns removes it as easily as it does the toughest corns. By using a few drops of "Gets-It" on the sole of your foot, you will be able to peel it off with your fingers, in one complete piece just as you would a banana peel. It leaves the skin free and smooth as though you never had a callus. You need no more fancy plasters, sticky tape, "package" bandages, knives or scissors for corns or calluses. "Gets-It" is the national corn remover, the biggest on earth, used by millions. It never fails. You'll work, play and dance at ease in spite of corns. "Gets-It" the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Nogales and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by OWL DRUG STORE.
